Master Chaplin's Corner

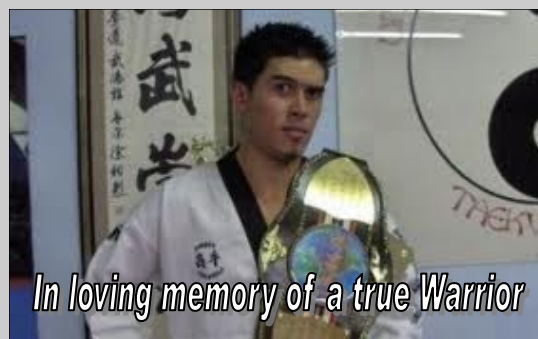

Hanmudo /Hapkido News

Master Chaplin teaches the weekend warrior class where students improve their Hanmudo/Hapkido skills. Classes are also available on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Come join the fun and learn self defense from one of the best!

Our heartfelt condolences go to Master Bill Lenix and his wife Master Candy Lenix. Their son Master Mitt Lenix lost his life early in the morning on May 15th. Master Mitt was world breaking champion two years in a row. He served in the reserves and was in pre-med school. Our prayers are with his family, he will be greatly missed.

In loving memory of a true Warrior

GATEWAY GAZETTE

Han finds a new home...

We will miss him.

Congratulations on a job well done!

Griffin Middle School presented Mulan on May 3rd through May 5th at the Griffin Theater. Our own Kai Yost had one of the leading roles and did an awesome job. Gateway helped in the acquiring of the black uniforms worn by some of the actors.
